

I Am Greene County

Growing up, my favorite breakfast cereal was: Cinnamon Toast Crunch.

Hometown: Springfield

I have a strong interest in: Literature.

Pets: Dog, Hiccup. He's family.

Education: Hillcrest High School and Missouri State University.

My favorite weekend activity is: Camping and hiking.

The best advice I've ever received is: "You can't control everything."

I think somebody needs to invent a contraption that will: Fold laundry.

A movie I never get tired of watching is: When Harry Met Sally.

Favorite Book: Speaker for the Dead.

My most prized possession is: My dog.

What I like most about my job is: Getting the opportunity to interact with the community on a daily basis.

The first thing I do when I get home is: Tell my dog how much I love him.

My favorite color is: Yellow.

When I retire, I'd like to: Go live in the mountains.

If I could be a superhero, my power would be: Telekinesis.

My favorite television show is: The Office.

Sponsored by:
Taylor Insurance

I Am
Erin Boschen

Facilities and Day Camp coordinator,
City of Willard